

Visa Information

If you're from the US, there's nothing complicated about getting a visa. In the case of Australia grooms, there's a K-1 visa that should be applied for. Once your partner is in the US, you'll have 90 days to have an official wedding.

What if you're not from the US? In this case, things might be different. In many countries, there's a kind of visa similar to a K-1 visa. For example, you might come across a type like a fiancé visa.
