

Visa Information

If you're from the US and planning to get married to an Italian man, you're expected to apply for a K-1 visa. To be able to apply for this visa, the petitioner and beneficiary are expected to be free to get married. And a couple are expected to have met in person.

If you're not from the US, visa requirements might vary, but in general, you'll have to apply for such a type of visa, be it a K-1 or fiancé visa. In the case of the US, a couple has to get married upon the arrival of a mail order groom within 90 days, while this duration might be different in other countries.
