

Visa Information

If a citizen of the US is planning to get a mail order bride from South Korea, he should apply for a K-1 visa to get it for his future wife. Upon the arrival of his Korean bride, they're supposed to officially get married within 90 days.

For citizens of the EU and other countries, conditions may vary. Most of the time, there will be the requirement of a K-1 visa or something equivalent with different stipulations depending on the country of residence.
